PLEASE NOTE: Foster children are categorically income eligible for Preschool Promise. Families applying to a Head Start program may be eligible if they are applying for a foster child, or are homeless, or receive Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), or Supplemental Security Income (SSI), or have a child who is on an Individualized Family Services Plan (IFSP). Contact programs for additional details about eligibility.

Preschool Promise (PSP) is not a first-come-first-served program. Availability of open slots are subject to change without notice. Preschool promise program selection, monitoring, and oversight is the role of the Oregon Department of Early Learning & Care. Please be advised, Four Rivers Hub's work to connect families to Preschool Promise services in our region does not constitute an endorsement of any participating programs. The hub does not participate in the selection or monitoring process for Preschool Promise and cannot attest to the program's adherence to Preschool Promise standards for quality, safety, and inclusion. We provide families with the information and support they need to make informed decisions about preschool selection for their children.
